Pre-Easter Message Brings Hope

Dr. Charles M. Pee at the Pre-Easter Assembly on Thursday.

The campus community was told of the life-changing impact of the resurrection as Reverend Dr. Charles M. Pee, the campus minister, shared the Pre-Easter Message, "Life Begins with Easter." Pee emphasized, "The resurrection of Jesus is at the heart of the Christian faith."

Taking the message from Mathew 28: 5-7, Dr. Pee said, "Easter is confrontational." He shared, "Jesus' resurrection from the grave began with an earthquake (Mathew 28: 2), not a whimper." Dr. Pee stated, "The resurrection is God's way of getting our attention."

Pee compared the earthquake in Mathew 28 to how God often gets our attention through earth-shaking trials and disappointments. "Our securities are often shaken to the core," Pee said. He went on to explain that it is at a confrontational point that we come to know Jesus as our resurrected Lord and Savior. "It is during such an encounter that we truly begin to live. The truth becomes clear." Pee went on to say, "Life begins when we act upon this truth."

Pee shared that life also begins when we are able to take hold of our God-given gifts and use them wisely. "Life begins for Christians when we realize we do not have to die to live. The message of Easter is to not live in fear but in joy." Pee urged the campus community to be mindful of the resurrection's promises. "Remember, for every dark cloud there is an Easter joy, for every sunset, a sunrise, for every crucifixion, a resurrection.

Giving closing remarks, President Richardson commended Dr. Pee for sharing an inspiring and thought-provoking message. He also wished the campus community a wonderful Easter celebration and encouraged students to embrace the message as they pursue their studies and prepare for final exams.
