Graham urges, "Seize the Moment Now!"

Dr. Jamey Graham, center, with the members of Xi Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. at their 2013 Founder's Day Assembly.

Xi Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. held their Founder's Day Assembly on Thursday morning. Dr. Jamey O. Graham, pastor of Saint John Baptist Church in Columbia, SC, Morris College alumnus, and member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was the speaker.

Addressing the Alpha's Founder's Day theme, "Reclaiming the Dream," Graham urged Morris College students to "Seize the Moment." His words of wisdom were taken from King Solomon in Proverbs 4:1, 5, and 7. Graham explained the scriptures show the importance of time and opportunity and that both are fleeting. To be assured of future success, an individual must possess the wisdom to know the value of being prepared for opportunity before it comes. "Now is the time to be prepared for the opportunity. Seize the moment." He asked, "Will you seize the opportunity to get a quality education at Morris College?"

Graham paralleled King Solomon's words, "Hear my son, the instruction of your father..." with hearing the instructions given by parents and professors. He paralleled getting wisdom—with getting skills, getting understanding—with getting knowledge from classroom instruction and study. He clarified, "To get, is to pursue, to take hold off, and to obtain."

He cautioned, "The choices you make today will determine how well you do tomorrow. The sky is the limit if you seize the moment." Graham stressed education as the key to opening doors to success. He said many are "stopping at a green light" when they make poor choices. "Live for God now! Make right choices now! God will elevate you in due season."

Dr. Luns C. Richardson shared how he met Graham on the Morris College campus years ago and how Graham seized the moment to pursue his education. He said, "Dr. Graham lives what he preaches and teaches." He praised his speech, saying it was one the campus community will remember. President Richardson applauded the Alpha's for a well-planned and well-executed program. He also recognized special guest, Dr. James Blassingame, president of the Baptist E & M Convention of South Carolina, Morris College alumnus, and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
